Hanging by a Thread

Aw blin

We're hooked on Asha Patel's latest jewelry line, the Threads collection, which showcases nine meaningful symbols from around the world on colored silk cords. The pendants, including Om, Peace, Heart, Lotus, Clover and Ribbon, are made from hand-cast sterling silver and are designed to bring the wearer luck, love and serenity of mind. Another reason to feel good about wearing Threads: A portion of the sales proceeds from the Ribbon, Peace and Lotus designs benefits the Breast Cancer Research Foundation, Doctors Without Borders and Asha for Education. ashapatel designs.com —L.A.
