GOOD KARMA

Asha Patel Designs' new jewelry collection, Correct Your Karma, perfectly represents the designer's vision of mixing Eastern symbolism with Western simplicity. We just love the I.D. bracelets, which come on a red leather cord with a choice of three significant Sanskrit words: shanti (peace), asha (hope) or devi (goddess). The line also includes Sanskrit word necklaces on sterling silver chains, leather cuffs and wraps in metallic gemstone colors, and chakra charms (meaningful symbols) on brass pendants strung on a delicate brass chain. ashapatel.com —L.A.
