Supporting emerging designers AND breast cancer awareness? We can't think of anything more empowering this October! Here are three indie jewelry brands that are making strides to promote breast cancer awareness and raise funds for research.

Asha Patel Designs - We absolutely adore Asha Patel's woven wrap bracelets, and this month the popular style comes in metallic pink! A portion of the proceeds (15%) benefit the Breast Cancer Research Foundation. Buy the bracelets (and other BCA-supporting pieces) for $29.50 each at ashapatel designs.com.
